PARADES OF PROTEST.

Parades of protest broke out all over the East Side in New York late Saturday on receipt of the news that Justice Goff had ruled in the State Supreme Court that a strike which demands the "closed shop" is a conspiracy in restraint of trade.

Bands of the 60,000 cloakmakers now on strike marched through the streets, one of them to city hall, carrying banners and American flags, and shouting, "Closed shop!" at every step. While there was no violence, the decision has greatly stirred the strikers.

Asserting that the report that their strike was officially declared off was false, the general strike committee of the cloakmakers at a mass meeting yesterday repudiated the compromise agreement advanced by the manufacturers, which waived the demand for closed shops, and voted to continue the strike until the closed shop demand is conceded by the employers.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, is greatly stirred by the decision of Justice Goff. He says: "The unions of labor will live, despite injunctions and decisions, which invade constitutionally guaranteed rights and human liberty. Without the unions there is no possibility for protection to the workers against the tyranny or the absolute autocratic sway of concentrated capital and greed."

Dysentery is a dangerous disease but can be cured. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has been successfully used in nine epidemics of dysentery. It has never been known to fail. It is equally valuable for children and adults, and when reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take. Sold by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS. Mrs. Edgar A. Emens, wife of Prof. Emens, of Syracuse University, and the latter's sister, Miss Martha Emens, of Fayette, were killed and Prof. Emens seriously injured yesterday afternoon, when the New York-Chicago flyer of the Lehigh Valley Railroad struck their automobile at Caywood, near Geneva, N. Y. The chauffeur, Carl M. Kilmer, also of Syracuse, was slightly hurt.

In an automobile, which went whirling from an embankment of the "third degree road, 5 miles south of Saxenburg, Butler county, Pa., yesterday, into the bed of a small creek 60 feet below, William Rodgers Dowling, of Pittsburg, was carried to instant death. The other occupant of the car, Edwin W. Beyer, aged 22, of Buffalo, N. Y., was severely but not fatally hurt.

Five persons were injured and the automobile of H. L. Avery, of Wellington, Ohio, was demolished when the machine was struck by a Lake Shore electric car at the Linwood Park crossing near Vermilion, Ohio, yesterday. None of the injured will die.

NEGRO INTRUDER SHOT.

Hearing a noise on the porch roof shortly after she went upstairs Saturday night to get ready to retire, Miss Martha Cannon, a popular young schoolteacher of Cecilton, Md., quietly walked to the window, peeped out and noticed the form of a man on the porch roof. She hurriedly ran to the next room, where her father, Alfred Cannon, was sleeping, and told what she had noticed. On four previous occasions the Cannon family had been annoyed by some one climbing to their porch roof and they had prepared for the would-be intruder should be return.

Mr. Cannon, therefore, hurriedly jumped from his bed, grabbed his revolver, hoisted the window and fired at the form of a man, who was about to jump to the ground. The intruder fell, got up and started to run, but he only got a short distance when he fell over dead. Noticing the man fall, the members of the Cannon family made an investigation and found that the man was James Price, a negro who had recently been released from the Maryland penitentiary where he had served 10 years for breaking into the residence of Mrs. Sarah Simon, of Elkton, and attempting to assault her.

EMPRESS EUGENIE. Compiegne and its palace, haunted with heroic memories of the great Napoleon and of the less austere and most brilliant days of the second empire, were last week visited by one of the chief personages of their famous past—the Empress Eugenie.

Clad in black, the aged empress passed unnoticed through the palace, together with a throng of Sunday tourists, to whom the guides expounded historical anecdotes in stereotyped phrases. Her majesty was accompanied only by one lady-in-waiting, her secretary, M. Franceschini Pietri, and Count Primoli.

The aspect of the palace of Compiegne has changed, but little since the days when it witnessed the gatherings

FARMER'S WIFE HAD HEAP TO DO

Mrs. Shepherd Was in Bad Shape When She Could Not Stand on Her Feet.

Durham, N. C.—"I am a farmer's wife," writes Mrs. J. M. Shepherd, of this city, "and have a heap to do."

"Four months ago I could not stand on my feet, to do anything much, but at this time I do the most of my work. I took Cardui and it did me more good than all the doctors."

"You don't know half how I thank you for the Cardui Home Treatment. I wish that all women who suffer from womanly trouble would treat themselves as I have."

Ladies can easily treat themselves at home, with Cardui, the woman's tonic. It is easy to take, and so gentle in its action, that it cannot do anything but good.

Being composed exclusively of vegetable ingredients, Cardui cannot lay up trouble in your system, as mineral drugs often do. Its ingredients having no harsh, medicinal effects, and being non-poisonous and perfectly harmless, Cardui is absolutely safe for young and old.

Ask your druggist. He will tell you to try Cardui.

N. B.—Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chas. Rogers Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request. of the wit, beauty and wealth of the second empire. There are the same pictures and tapestry which looked down on Napoleon III's brilliant hunting parties and the Princess Metternich's famous tableaux vivants.

In one room is Winterhaler's portrait of the empress reproduced in tapestry close to a bust of the prince imperial by Carpeaux. Here, says the correspondent of the Echo de Paris, the empress lingered behind the tourists. "Then, when she was alone a moment in the room where the little prince of old had worked at his lessons, she was overcome by the emotion she could no longer restrain."

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets gently stimulate the liver and bowels to expel poisonous matter, cleanse the system, cure constipation and sick headache. Sold by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

COUNTRY'S BIG WHEAT FIELDS. Although the wheat fields of the far west are generally supposed to be of extended acreage, in the states where these fields are largest they average a little more than one hundred acres.

In California, however, the average is 169 acres. In North Dakota the average is 115 acres; in Washington, 110 acres, and in Oregon, 105 acres. Although there are some enormous fields of wheat in these states, the many smaller ones reduce the average size to that of ordinary farms.

The values of both wheat and corn land are greatest in Illinois, where the average value is said to be $84 an acre for wheat and $100 for corn.

FIFTY YEARS' EXPERIENCE OF AN OLD NURSE. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup is the prescription of one of the best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and has been used for fifty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. It relieves the child from pain, cures diarrhoea, griping in the bowels, and wind colic. By giving health to the child it rests the mother. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

When the digestion is all right, the action of the bowels regular, there is a natural craving and relish for food. When this is lacking you may know that you need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They strengthen the digestive organs, improve the appetite and regulate the bowels. Sold by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

WEEK-END TICKETS. Local week-end tickets Washington to Somerset, Warrenton, Harrisonburg, Blumont and intermediate stations sold on Saturdays and Sundays, valid for return on Monday at very low fares, will be placed on sale by Southern Railway at Washington, D.
